

in edition

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG
CELEBRATES
NATIONAL UNIVERSITIES WEEK

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3

Reach for the Top - Political Trivia Contest

Hosted by CBC's Bill Guest, the contest will feature Alumni Politicians in a match against University Faculty and Students. 12:00 Noon, Riddell Hall Gymnasium.

Special Lecture - Teaching French Yesterday and Today

Dr. Carol Harvey, winner of the University's C.J. Robson Award for Excellence in Teaching, will address a group of School Trustees and School Superintendents. 8:00 p.m. Room 104 Lockhart Hall.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

Pancake Breakfast for faculty and staff to help kick-off the University's Annual United Way Campaign. 7:30 - 8:30 a.m. Riddell Hall Cafeteria.

The Great Rock Climb - Students, staff and alumni teams of three are invited to attempt to scale 'The Great Rock' in a race against time. 12:40 p.m. Front lawn, Wesley Hall

Public Lecture - Dr. Wolf D. Gruner Great Britain and the 'German Problem' in the 19th and 20th Centuries is the topic of a lecture sponsored by the University's Department of Political Science. 12:40 p.m. Room 1L13 Lockhart Hall

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5

'The University in the Inner City' A seminar hosted by the Institute of Urban Studies and the University of Winnipeg. Registration at 12:40 p.m. in Theatre 3C00 Centennial Hall. For further information telephone 786-7811, ext. 409.

Bonnycastle Lecture - Harold Coward University and the Community: A Partnership for the Future 7:30 p.m. Theatre 3C00 Centennial Hall

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6

Bonnycastle Lecture - John Sewell Social Limits to Urban Growth 12:40 p.m. Theatre 3C00 Centennial Hall

Campus Tours for Special Guests

Wednesday, October 5 at 6:30 p.m.
Thursday, October 6 at 2:00 p.m.
Friday, October 7 at 10:00 a.m.

Tours will meet in the Main Foyer of Wesley Hall, 515 Portage Avenue