UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG PREPARATORY PROGRAM APPROVED

The University of Winnipeg Senate has approved a University Preparatory Program to be offered cooperatively through the Division of Continuing Education, the Faculty of Arts and Science, and the Department of English. The program has been developed in response to the need for improved services for students at risk of academic failure - particularly mature students, those who speak English as a second language, and those entering with low high school grade averages.

The program, which requires completion of 90 course hours, has three core components: Academic and Personal Planning; Basic Composition/Writing Skills; and Study Skills. The emphasis of the program is on individualized guided learning in an instructor-supervised environment. As students develop their skills and gain confidence in their ability to handle the academic work, they will more easily make the transition into the traditional classroom environment where assignments are completed independently. Alternatively, students who are unable to cope with the academic materials at this level may choose to defer entry into the university, or may seek other post-secondary opportunities.

Seventy-five people, including members of the Western Canada Pictorial Index Board, attended a meeting at The University of Winnipeg Athletic Centre on May 14. The staff of the W.C.P.I. gave a slide presentation which traced the evolution of agriculture in the West. A video of the Austin Fair, produced by Bruce Hanks, was also screened.
